

Community College Opportunity Grants for County Vocational-Technical Schools Now Available for Adult Learners

Those with Adjusted Gross Income of $0 to $100,000 are Eligible to Apply

New Jersey supports residents of all ages to pursue certification in an in-demand career field by providing financial aid to students enrolled at vocational-technical schools throughout the state. Eligible students can now apply for tuition assistance at one of the participating county vocational schools in select certification programs. After completion of your course, students will be eligible to receive college credits at a select county college. Reach out to your contact below to find out where you can receive your credits.

Eligibility

Eligibility and award amounts include consideration of the Adjusted Gross Income (AGI) of either the family (for dependent students) or the student/spouse (for independent students), satisfactory academic progress as determined by the schools, and that the student has not yet earned a college degree. Interested students should reach out to the contact below to get an application and learn how to file the FAFSA. Students must apply for the fall semester by November 1, 2023 and May 1, 2024 for the spring.

Certified Nurse Aide

The Certified Nurse Aide in Long-Term Care Facilities Program is a New Jersey Department of Health and Senior Services approved training course. This program consists of a minimum of 90 hours of training, which equates to 50 hours of classroom instruction and 40 hours of clinical experiences.

The objective of this program is to provide students with basic nurse aide knowledge and skills needed to care for residents and prepare nurse aides to assume the responsibilities of a trained care-giver. Upon completion of this course, students will be eligible to take the Nurse Aide in Long-Term Care Competency Evaluation to gain New Jersey DHHS CNA certification.
